

Insurance Companies Say This Guest is Their Most Wanted Man In America

Every day thousands of Americans suffer property damage and catastrophic loss to their homes. They expect their insurance companies to make good...but the reality is bad news.

Mark Houser says Insurance Companies don't fully pay ... we are being ripped off!

STORY IDEAS

- Learn how poorly the insurance companies train their adjusters. Mark shows how the average home owner has a $5,000 to $10,000 claim in their home right now.
- Discover the only recession & inflation proof profession: America needs 50,000 NEW public adjusters today
- Understand how to truly prepare for a home disaster and ensure the insurance company pays up and pays promptly.
- Do an exciting segment on site: Mark goes right to the disaster zone and instantly shows how to deal with the losses.
- Be amazed by the crazy things covered under your homeowner's policy you didn't know existed. Be aware of the good, the bad, and the really ugly insurance Companies.

I Have a 10 minute Audio of an insurance Adjuster training other insurance adjusters to steal from the homeowner.
